KCLAS Admission Handbook - 2020

Philosophy

KCLAS strives to attract the best of students while embracing diversity in gender, religion, language, geography, disability, economically /socially disadvantaged. Our philosophy in admission is

- Ensure all the stakeholders are conscious of our endeavour to become an institution that embraces diversity
- Reach out to a cross-section of students who are inspired to pursue liberal arts education
- Ensure that the admission process places student aptitude and keen inclination to pursue a chosen programme, over past school performance.
- Admission to KCLAS is merit-based, while Financial Aid is need-based. An applicant's selection to the programme is not affected by the information submitted in the Financial Aid section

All decisions of the Admissions Committee are final. No request for reevaluation of an applicant's application will be considered once the final decision has been sent

Admission Process – UG/ PG

KCLAS will follow a robust admission process to ensure that the best candidates who would fulfil the vision of KCLAS be selected.

Registration and online application form
