Co-curricular Opportunities

Kumaraguru College of Liberal Arts and Science is an institution that aims at providing students with the best exposure, experiences by catering to the various verticals of student interests by offering unique avenues for creative expression. The Clubs instituted in KCLAS perform that very function – they enable students to explore their options in terms of extra-curriculars and aids them in building a portfolio that is essential for students of the Liberal Arts.

KCLAS boasts of 12 clubs that were established to give students the freedom to express themselves in varied art-forms while building leadership skills. The Clubs of the College are entirely student run with minimum interference from faculty coordinators, thus ensuring that the members of the clubs learn to be responsible for their ideas. The Clubs can be broadly divided under three headings – Performing Arts Clubs (Drama, Music, and Dance), Fine Arts and Literary Clubs (Fine Arts, Creative Writing, Book Readers', Tamil Mandram and Qubate) and Environment and Sustainability Clubs (Photography, Nature, Citizen Consumer, Community Engagement).

Scrabble is a creative writing club that brings together individuals interested in writing and storytelling. It provides a platform for writers of various skill levels to share their work, receive feedback, and engage in writing-related activities. We foster a supportive and collaborative environment where members can explore their creativity, improve their writing skills, and connect with fellow writers.

Goal

Our club aims to foster a nurturing environment where members can express themselves freely.

Space:

SPACE, a benchmark initiative of Kumaraguru College of Liberal Arts and Science, encompasses Five student-driven Liberal Arts Action Labs.

1. Entrepreneurship Action Lab
2. Literary Action Lab
3. Research Action Lab
4. Social Design Action Lab
5. Visual Design Action Lab

The labs aim at inculcation of knowledge about specific domains that students are passionate about, enabling them with hands-on projects, expert conversations, online courses, hackathons, internships, masterclasses, boot camps, organizing intra - collegiate and inter - collegiate fests, initiating 'Events for Cause' and participating in renowned events and conferences. Thus, learning is leveraged with exploration, experimentation, engagement and earning, ensuring that learning becomes synonymous with fun. Along with the activities mentioned above, collaborations with real world experts for mentorship is a unique feature of the labs of SPACE.

Evolve:

Evolve, a KCLAS webinar series, is an initiative of the student Leadership Council of KCLAS. It emerged with flying colors and has had a commendable journey of 72 exclusive sessions and 17+ tie up events.

Evolve undertakes benchmark initiatives to facilitate a better understanding of artistic skills by opening doors of opportunities.

Evolve was initiated during the initial spread of COVID-'19 amidst the lockdown with a social objective of instilling passion for lifelong learning in the student community through unpredictable times, by offering thought provoking webinars with leading experts at zero cost. The focus lay on helping the student community develop by offering practical insights into multiple domains, despite the pandemic and helping everyone to stay motivated and positive in the new normal.

Yuva:

The Yuva forum of KCLAS is the student wing of Young Indians, where members are involved in leadership, personal development and nation building activities. The vision is, “An equitable and sustainable surrounding community brought about by young Indians”. Yuva has been a consistent platform for building social awareness and leadership qualities.

Yuva hopes to enable young minds to bring about holistic development among the community resulting in a self - sustaining future. Yuva equips the students with all the necessary tools to ace their future in both their personal and professional spheres by instilling moral values, patriotism, etc.
